Media Consent Form 2021

Child Name Class

On a regular basis we will take photographs of children to highlight what children are doing in our School. These photos may be used in our weekly newsletter published to parents via our website and School App.

Oldcastle also has an active Twitter and Facebook accounts and we regularly post articles regarding our school and class work. Names will not be used in any Twitter and Facebook posts.

There may be occasions where a newspaper or magazine article is written about an event, the success of a sports team or winners of a competition, in these cases the newspaper or magazine will want to publish photographs with names. In this instance first names only will be used.

Please complete the form below and return to school as soon as possible. If you do not agree to the statements please leave the boxes unticked, sign the form and return to us.
